DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The indicated allowability of claims 3-6, 9, 10, 13, 16 and 19 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Bleicher, et al. (DE10106437). Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-17 and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bleicher, et al. (DE10106437) in view of Short, et al. (6,802,528).

Bleicher teaches an airbag device for a motorcycle having a handlebar 1 the airbag device 6 comprising an airbag and an inflator (not shown). Bleicher teaches the claimed invention except for a retainer for the airbag. Short teaches a retainer 10 for an airbag. The handlebar has a pair of laterally spaced and generally upwardly extending side portions. The airbag is disposed entirely between the handlebar side portions.

Short teaches the airbag retainer is attached to some vehicle structure (not shown) in a known manner such that the airbag cushion deploys towards a vehicle occupant. Based on the teachings of Short, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the airbag device of Bleicher to include a retainer to provide support for the airbag upon deployment during a vehicle collision.

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bleicher, et al. (DE10106437) in view of Short, et al. (6,802,528), further in view of Folsom, et al. (5,501,489).

Bleicher in view of Short teaches the claimed invention except for the airbag having a roll-folded configuration. Folsom teaches an airbag 10 wherein the airbag is roll-folded in the housing 22. Based on the teachings of Bleicher in view of Short, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the airbag of the combination of Bleicher and Short roll-folded to provide a more uniform deployment of the airbag.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
